Experience Highlights

Greg's past experience has been with the international public accounting firms, PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP and Ernst & Young, LLP, in their transaction services and audit practice in Chicago and Indianapolis. At Ernst & Young, LLP, he primarily performed work on hospitals, assisted living centers, and other care provider clients. In addition, Greg was thoroughly involved in and helped his clients through their internal control reporting transition under Section 404 for the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Greg also served on the Professional Practice Management team to assist firm clients with technical issues, interpretation of guidance, and monitoring of firm audit quality.

Greg serves on DOZ's executive committee, working closely with the CEO and COO to shape and drive the organization, including matters of budgeting, staffing, and management.
