Experience Highlights

Since joining this firm, Ryan has prepared and reviewed numerous audits of limited liability companies, corporations, partnerships, and not-for-profit entities owning various real estate developments. These audits have been prepared for HUD, RD, and various debt and equity providers. He has also prepared and reviewed cost certifications and qualified contract pricing applications required by various state housing finance agencies in connection with LIHTC awards.

In early 2020, DOZ's ownership expanded to include 13 of DOZ's most tenured partners, including Ryan, solidifying the future of the firm and ensuring that the knowledge, service, and culture that our clients and partners have come to rely on are preserved. Ryan remains integrally involved in servicing his portfolio of clients and also serves on DOZ's development committee, responsible for helping develop the pipeline of talent within DOZ, maintaining a continual supply of talented, highly trained individuals to staff client engagements.
